From Fr. Flor McCarthy:

"There was a queue of people outside the gates of heaven. Each person was asked the question: why do you think you should be admitted? The first person in the queue, a very religious man, said I have studied the bible every day. Very good said the Lord, However we will have to carry out an investigation to see why you studied the bible, so please wait a moment. The second person was a very pious woman, who said, Lord I said my prayers every day without fail. Very Good, the lord answered. However we see if your motives were pure. So please wait a moment. Then another man approached and said, Lord on earth I was not very religious, but my door was always open to anybody who was hungry or in need I tried to offer what care I could.- very good said the lord in your case you have no need to wait- go right in.

It has been said if you do a good deed, but with an ulterior motive, it would be better not to do it at all. The only exception is charity, if the act is good and benefits the other person no matter what your motive is, it is still a good deed and is worth doing."
